

7 Jan.
2017

10th Pune Inventor Networks (PIN)

Half day workshop on CHALLENGES FACED BY BIOTECH/BIOPHARMA/PHARMA PATENT APPLICATIONS AND STRATEGIES TO OVERCOME THE CHALLENGES

Time: 10 am - 1.30 pm | Venue: Training room, 100 NCL Innovation Park

The aim of seminar is to discuss, aspects and trends in pharmaceutical industry in view of the recent decisions, policy making for the protection of Intellectual Property, business decision making, challenges currently faced by biotech or Bio pharma or Pharma patents, strategies to overcome these challenges and how to develop a strong IP strategy for business.

Know the speakers

Limaye Varunraj Vinayak
BSc-Chem., MSc-Drug Chem., LLB, Registered Patent Agent.
Handles patent drafting and prosecution in the areas of drug chem, organic chem, pharma/bio-pharma, medical diagnostics.

Sankaran Vasundhara
BSc - Chem., MSc- Chem., LLB, Registered Patent Agent. She assists in patent filing and prosecution in the areas of organic chemistry, biochemistry, bio-pharmaceuticals, medical diagnostics, microbiology, and biotechnology.

Organized by:

Highlights of the workshop

- Overview and introduction to pharma and biotech patenting.
- Key aspects of the patent law with respect to pharma industry and research.
- Overview of trends and current themes in pharma patenting
- Recent case studies relating exclusion categories in the Indian Patent Law
- Guidelines for examination of patent applications in the field of Pharmaceuticals
- Strategies to protect inventions falling under non-patentable subject matter
- Role of BDA in the grant of inventions

Who can attend

- Research/ Science Managers/ CTOs/ CSOs in Research/ Technology Organizations/ Companies
- Technology/IP Managers/Patent Professionals/ Innovation Officers
- Students of IPR, Patent Law, Other law disciplines, Pharma/ Biotech
- Inventors

Other details

- Cost: Rs 100/-
- Register Here: <http://bit.ly/2i4sEkz>
- For more info: www.ipface.org/workshops.php